

Plainview Baseball/Softball Umpires Policies

Who can umpire?

Any boy or girl entering the 8th grade who has turned 13 years of age by Apr 1 .

Will there be training and am I required to attend training?

Yes, you are required to attend mandatory umpire clinics(2-3) during the winter.

What are the requirements?

You must learn both the LL rules as well as local rules. You must have availability and fill out the appropriate application, availability and tax forms.

What equipment will I need?

*You will be provided a shirt, hat, indicator, ball bag and brush.
(which you may keep).*

In addition, you will be provided a Mask, Chest Protector and Shin guards.(which must be returned before your last paycheck is received).

How much will I be paid to umpire?

The fee schedule is as follows:

1-2 years experience -$25 per game;

3-4 years experience-$35 per game;

5-6 years experience-$45per game;

Adults 18 + with experience receive $55 per game

Travel fee (showing up to game but not called for cancellation)- $15

(A Season of umpiring includes Spring, Summer and Fall in that order)

An umpire must work at least 4 games in a season to earn a year of experience!

Guarantee of work

There is no guarantee of work or X number of games after attending the clinics

Assignment of games is based on availability, ability and performance.

Missed assignments

If you are unable to make a game you must notify the Umpire in Chief

ASAP - preferably 24 hours in advance –failure to show or failure to notify

Umpire in Chief in a timely manner can be grounds for your removal as an PLL umpire.

Uniform

You are expected to be dressed appropriately in the provided uniform of

PLL shirt/PLL hat along with an appropriate pair of pants(sweats or jeans)

Senior experienced umpires are expected to wear gray umpire slacks during

PLL Tournaments

Discipline

All PLL Umpire are to respect all Managers/Coaches/Players and parents at all times. You are a reflection of the league and are in a position of authority that must not be abused.

MAINTAIN COMPOSURE AT ALL TIMES